Re: City of Hoboken v. Exxon Mobil Corp., et al.
Case No.: 2:20-cv-14243-JMV-MF

Dear Judge Falk:

We represent defendants Chevron Corp. and Chevron U.S.A. Inc. (together, the “Chevron Parties”) in this action. In accordance with Your Honor’s judicial preferences and Local Civil Rule 101.1(c), we submit this application for an Order allowing Theodore J. Boutrous, Jr., Thomas G. Hungar, Andrea E. Neuman, William E. Thomson, and Joshua D. Dick, each of the law firm Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, LLP, to enter an appearance in this action pro hac vice on behalf of the Chevron Parties. Enclosed for the Court’s consideration are the Certifications of Messrs. Boutrous, Hungar, Thomson, Dick, and Ms. Neuman, my own Certification as local counsel, and a proposed order.

Honorable Mark Falk, Chief U.S.M.J.

All counsel have consented to this application. If the application meets with Your Honor's approval, we ask that the Court enter the proposed order admitting Messrs. Boutrous, Hungar, Thomson, Dick, and Ms. Neuman pro hac vice.

Thank you for your consideration of this application.

Respectfully,

/s/Joel M. Silverstein
